TRANSIT-DRIVEN DEVELOPMENT AHEAD OF THE 2028 GAMES

With the Summer Olympic and Paralympic Games coming to Los Angeles in 2028, Metro has worked with Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti to adopt a “Twenty-Eight by ’28” plan that includes 28 key roadway and transit projects to be completed by the time the Games come to town in 2028 - vastly improving the transportation conditions in the region for residents while, inevitably, spurring significant development along those select transit corridors.

Join us for a conversation of those 28 projects with esteemed panelists and stakeholders from the City, Metro, and private developers to hear how LA is building towards a new tomorrow!
