BACK TO SCHOOL RESHAPING EDUCATION IN LOS ANGELES

The bill for K-12 public education in America is $600-billion! With education representing the largest share of any state's annual budget, California holds a minimum level of funding for education at 43% of general tax revenues.

To understand how this funding is satisfying the demands of growth in Los Angeles, join us for a conversation with private and public sector stakeholders to hear about Capital Programs and how Future Plans for LAUSD and local Charter Schools are reshaping education in Los Angeles for future generations!
